

Wycombe 1 Clapton 0

WYCOMBE WANDERERS owe these Isthmian League points to Clapton right half Brian Sprague, who headed into his own goal during a harmless-looking home advance a few minutes after half-time.

There was a marked lack of imagination and drive in both attacks and with the defences dominating it was a game of few thrills.

Wycombe lost both Lailey and Samuels injured in the first-half. Samuels returned in the second and Faulkner deputised for Lailey. They had a good deal more of the play throughout, but rarely looked like scoring by their own efforts.
